The publication of information concerning action taken in respect of international labour Conventions and Recommendations does not imply any expression of view by the International Labour Office on the legal status of the State having communicated such information (including the communication of a ratification or declaration), or on its authority over the areas or territories in respect of which such information is communicated; in certain cases this may present problems on which the ILO is not competent to express an opinion.

ILO publications can be obtained through major booksellers or ILO local offices in many countries, or direct from ILO Publications, International Labour Office, CH-1211 Geneva 22, Switzerland. A catalogue or list of new publications will be sent free of charge from the above address.

Total number of ratifications of international labour Conventions as of 31 December 2000: 6858

The Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, one of the new independent States following the dissolution of the former Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, joined the International Labour Organization on 24 November 2000. At the time this report went to print (31 December 2000), the new member State had not yet communicated its decision concerning the succession in respect of the international labour Conventions previously ratified by the former Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia. Consequently, the reference to Yugoslavia in the lists of ratified Conventions indicates the instruments ratified by the former Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia.

Adopted at the 15th Session of the ILC — Convention withdrawn

2 ratifications

Argentina	24.09.1956	Spain	29.08.1932

At its 88th Session (June 2000), the International Labour Conference decided to withdraw Convention No. 31, in conformity with article 45bis of its Rules. The decision to withdraw is taken by the Conference when it appears that a Convention is not in force or when a recommendation has lost its purpose, so that they no longer make a useful contribution to attaining the objectives of the Organization.

Migration for Employment Convention, 1939 (No. 66)

No ratifications registered

At its 88th Session (June 2000), the International Labour Conference decided to withdraw Convention No. 66, in conformity with article 45bis of its Rules. The decision to withdraw is taken by the Conference when it appears that a Convention is not in force or when a recommendation has lost its purpose, so that they no longer make a useful contribution to attaining the objectives of the Organization.
